'I'm not too busy to do my best for Axminster'

ONE of Axminster's most experienced councillors and leading community leaders has hit back at criticism that he is too busy to represent the town on three councils.

Former mayor Andrew Moulding turned 70 last week but has just been elevated to chairman of Devon County Council (DCC).

He is also the deputy leader of East Devon District Council (EDDC) and a senior member of Axminster Town Council.

In addition, he is heavily involved with many local organisations, including Axminster Heritage and Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre.

In recent weeks a number of people have questioned whether he is able to effectively represent the town when holding so many posts.

The issue was highlighted last month when his promotion to chairman of DCC was announced.

But Councillor Moulding is adamant that he has got the time required and that his workload has no detrimental effect on the town and its residents.

For example, he says that the workload as DCC chairman is far less than that of his previous high-profile role at County Hall, as Place Scrutiny Committee chairman.

He said: "Being chairman of the Place Scrutiny Committee carried a lot of responsibility and involved a lot of time spent on background papers.

"I'm not in that role anymore, and I only sit on the Standards and Procedures committees, which don't meet very often.

"Being chairman of DCC is more of a ceremonial/civic role, with many of the events I attend being during weekends.

"It is about time management, a well-organised diary and prioritising."

Mr Moulding, a Conservative, first became a councillor in 1987 when being elected on to EDDC and Axminster Town Council.

Only last week it was announced that he has been appointed to EDDC's Axminster Regeneration Board which, in its own words, will "put the zing into revitalising Axminster".

From the editor's chair Andrew will do Axminster proud

CAN a councillor serve three masters? That's a question which has been posed on several occasions in the past few weeks – ever since "Mr Axminster" Andrew Moulding rose to the dizzy heights of chairman of Devon County Council.

I've known Andrew for most of my adult life. I've played sport with him and against him. His contribution to the community life of Axminster over the years has been unquestionable. Everyone knows if you cut Andrew, he bleeds Axminster.

Approaching his three-score years and ten, an age when most men of his age spend as much time as they can on the bowling green, in the garden or down the pub, Andrew is busier than ever.

He's one of those blokes who likes to keep busy and get things done. And he's done many things for Axminster. Indeed, Axminster has been his life.

In recent times Andrew has become a bit of a political animal. A former mayor and town councillor, he also serves on East Devon District Council as deputy leader and has been a county councillor since 2009, holding the high profile role of chairman of one of the most important committees at county hall.

He stands as a Conservative and appreciates that some criticism will always come when you go down that road. Mostly, he takes it on the chin.

I've written stuff in this column in recent years about the Tories' grip on East Devon and whilst I am sure he disagrees strongly with my viewpoint on his Conservative colleagues, he always treats me and other members of the Press in a polite and respectful manner. Not all of them do.

Recently, Andrew has come in for a bit more stick because he's now chairman of Devon County Council. That's a great honour for someone who has put so much into local government over the years.

But can he represent the people of Axminster properly on three councils? The fact is, of course, that county council chairman is a civic position and despite the hundreds of events he will attend during his term of office, it's probably not as time consuming as chairing one of DCC's most important committees.

Will it be his swansong in local government? Who knows? But he deserves the honour and I wish him well. I am sure he will do Axminster and Devon proud.

SEATON

Anger over boarded up beach kiosk

A SEATON resident is fuming that a beachside kiosk and café in a prime location is not trading weeks into the lucrative tourist season.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) has confirmed that the selected bidder for the lease of Seaton Hole Kiosk (a.k.a. Cliff Side Cabin) pulled out.

Simon Wellington lives next to the kiosk, and said: "I cannot tell you how angry I am that this block is sitting empty, with thousands of pounds being spent on the adjoining toilets, and no clientele at the cafe.

"The amount of turned away trade is dreadful. EDDC owes it to us to keep this cafe open and stop this area slipping away due to lack of care and attention."

Mr Wellington has also made a formal complaint to EDDC about the bidding process for the lease.

He assisted an unsuccessful bidder, and said: "By the time we had a response from EDDC, we only had three days to make a business plan and propose a rent.

"We felt the whole process was flawed and gave our reasons. We were also told that the cabin would be open within weeks and here we are a long time later in June and there is no sign of a tenant."

HONITON

EDDC strategy on new sport pitches

HONITON'S desperate need for sport pitches could be coming to an end after East Devon District Council announced plans for a consultation with the local community to find out what they want.

The consultation, which also involves the relevant local organisations, will hear the public's views about draft proposals for additional sport pitches to meet the growing demand of Honiton.

The need to identify sites for additional sports pitches is an important part of the EDDC's Playing Pitch Strategy (PPS), which it adopted in June 2015.

Consequently, East Devon's planning policy team has produced a draft Sports Pitch Strategy for the town, which recommends a combination of new sites and improvements to existing venues.

SOUTH SOMERSET

'Life-saving' new service launches

PEOPLE critically injured in remote Somerset locations can receive blood transfusions at the scene thanks to a new "life-saving" service.

The service will see Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance's operations centre at Henstridge Airfield having blood delivered daily by volunteer riders and drivers from charity Devon Free-wheelers' emergency response team.

The blood will be administered at the scenes of emergencies by air ambulance paramedics.

The arrangement means that Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance joins nine other air ambulance services across the UK to carry blood products onboard their aircraft and rapid response vehicles.

COLYTON

Tradesmen complete cycle ride

FOUR Colyton tradesmen have completed their sponsored cycle ride from John O'Groats in the far north east of Scotland to Land's End, Cornwall – just short of 1,000 miles.

Drainage engineer Dave Selley, electrician Matt Craker, builder Doug Board, and plumber Ian 'Pipes' Woodhall set off on May 30th and completed the ride in 14 days, arriving at Land's End on Sunday.

They took on the challenge to raise funds for FORCE, a local cancer charity based in Exeter at the RD&E Hospital, and have made a total of almost £6,000.

The cyclists were joined by friends and family at the finishing line.

EAST DEVON

Swire launches attack on 'independents'

EAST Devon MP Hugo Swire has launched a stinging attack on local activists who claim they have no political allegiance.

In a 2000-word blog post on his website, entitled "How Independent are the Independents?", Mr Swire gave his take on why so many of the Police and Crime Commissioner elections were won by Conservatives or Labour candidates instead of independents, as well as questioning the independent nature of the East Devon Alliance (EDA) – East Devon's newest political party who took East Devon District Council by storm last year winning nine seats in the elections.

Mr Swire wrote: "The East Devon Alliance is a local group of supposed 'independents' yet they have banded together to form an 'alliance'.

"They now sit on East Devon District Council as a grouping. There is nothing wrong with that, after all, the SNP, once the underdog in Scotland, is now a significant force at Westminster, it is the natural evolution of how a party gains ground.

"But it is disingenuous for the East Devon Alliance to suggest they are all stand-alone councillors when they have core values and policies; policies albeit that have been tied irrevocably to a single geographical area.

"They are also collectively anti-Tory, again nothing wrong in that, but it means they are not exactly independent thinking."

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY HONOURS LIST 2016

TWO local residents have been honoured on the Queen's Birthday Honours List.

Sidmouth's Fay Wilson-Rudd has been awarded the MBE (Member of the Order of the British Empire) for services to the Church of England and to mental health care in Somerset.

Margaret Lewis of Honiton, a volunteer at the town's Allhallows Museum, has been awarded the BEM (British Empire Medal) for services to the community in the town.

Also, Sidmouth born Naomi Thomas, who now resides in Wellington, was given a BEM for charitable services to terminally ill people.

Ms Thomas is the founder of Wedding Wishing Well Foundation which helps to organise and fund weddings for terminally ill people.

Stockland win cricket competition

FINALISTS: Tournament winners Stockland A and runners-up Tatworth A

THE Stockland A team celebrated winning Axminster Town Cricket Club's annual competition for local primary schools.

Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre was filled with 180 players, 20 teachers, 12 volunteers and many spectators on June 8th.

Eight primary schools – Tatworth, Stockland, Beer, All Saints, St Mary's (Axminster), St Mary's (Thorncombe), All Saints and St Andrews (Chardstock) – fielded varying numbers of teams.

Head of coaching and youth cricket at Axminster Town CC, Dan Murnane, thanked Mole Avon for sponsoring the event.

Emu steals the show at Mole Avon

A BABY emu was the star of the show during the two-day smallholders' weekend at Mole Avon in Axminster.

Smallholders were invited to have stalls at the shop on Saturday, May 28th and Spring Bank Holiday Monday.

The baby emu, hand-reared by smallholder Anne Meggitt from Chard Junction, attracted a lot of attention.

involved a lot of time spent on background papers.

"I'm not in that role anymore, and I only sit on the Standards and Procedures committees, which don't meet very often.

"Being chairman of DCC is more of a ceremonial/civic role, with many of the events I attend being during weekends.

"It is about time management, a well-organised diary and prioritising.

"I had a full-time job (as cricket development manager with Somerset County Cricket Club) up until I retired in 2011.

"It was difficult when I had the opportunity to join DCC in 2009 as most DCC meetings were during the day.

"But my employer recognised that my involvement with local affairs helped me with my [day] job, and the cricket job involved a lot of weekend work, which didn't clash with council meetings."

Mr Moulding, a Conservative, first became a councillor in 1987 when being elected on to EDDC and Axminster Town Council.

Only last week it was announced that he has been appointed to EDDC's Axminster Regeneration Board which, in its own words, will "put the zing into revitalising Axminster".

Born and bred in Axminster, Councillor Moulding was educated at Colyton Grammar. He worked in the family building firm before landing his dream job working for Somerset County Cricket Club.

He has been one of the leading lights in establishing Cloakham Lawn as one of the best sporting facilities in East Devon and now holds the position of president at the sports centre.

Police probe bin fire in West Street toilets

POLICE officers in Axminster have asked for information on a bin fire.

A spokesperson said: "We received a report of a bin having been set alight in the ladies' public toilet in West Street between 3pm and 7pm on Sunday, June 5th."

Anyone able to offer information regarding this crime is asked to call 101, quoting crime reference 37119/16.

Grants to help Devon companies promote their good and servives

DEVON County Council has announced there will be a second round of Business Promotion Grants (BPG).

The BPG scheme was introduced in February as part of the Devon Delivers programme, which aims to highlight the benefits of locating a business in the county.

Grants of up to £1,000 were awarded to 12 Devon companies earlier this year to promote their goods or services to national and international trade audiences.

Devon County Council has now allocated additional funding for a second round.

Businesses across Devon are invited to apply, the deadline being July 1st.

The funding will support eligible businesses to cover direct exhibiting costs of attending trade shows or events between next month and March 2017.

Councillor Andrew Leadbetter, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Economy and Growth, said: "The inaugural competitive bidding process for the BPG earlier this year attracted a really positive response and a large number of applications.

"This grant has already helped a dozen Devon firms to attend trade shows, providing them with vital exposure and helping to put Devon on the map as the home to thriving businesses.

"I'm pleased that we've successfully secured some extra funding to be able to open up a second round of bidding for the fund, and I would encourage businesses to apply."

Application forms and guidelines are available at www.investdevon.co.uk/business/devon-delivers-business-promotion-grant

Silo fire at Yarcombe farm

THE tank of a silo was destroyed and an attached building damaged in a fire at Riverside Feeds, Crawley Farm, Yarcombe.

Firefighters were called just after midday on Tuesday, May 31st, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "One fire appliance from Chard, one from Honiton and one from Axminster were sent to a report of a fire involving a fat silo.

"On arrival crews confirmed smoke and flames were issuing and requested a further two fire appliances to attend.

"These were then sent from Ilminster and Crewkerne along with the Incident Command Unit from Wiveliscombe.

"The silo tank was destroyed by fire and the large building attached to it was moderately damaged.

"Several tonnes of animal feed was contaminated by fire but all water run-off was contained. "The cause of the fire is believed to be accidental."

The Project takes on allotment

THE Project, the Axminster-based charity supporting young people with emotional and mental health issues, is set to incorporate gardening into its work.

It has taken on one of the North Street allotments with the help of a small grant from the Devon Community Foundation, which has provided money for a shed, tools and resources.

Debbie Humberstone, who founded The Project, said: "Many of our young people are very isolated by their issues, and can spend long periods of time alone.

■ The Project's Lesley Brown checks out the allotment

"To be able to offer this space, at the heart of our community, and for them to have something they can plan, nurture and see the end results, will be a very positive addition to our work.

"Exploring new ideas and learning new skills boosts confidence and gives our young people another tool to help them to recover from their mental ill health."

Lesley Brown, who joined The Project at the end of last year to lead support sessions, added: "The benefits of being outside in the fresh air, of physical activity and working together to create something, are well known. Our young people have expressed an interest in having something they can get involved in, and work on – to learn new skills and gain confidence."

The Project is looking to recruit new volunteers both to help out with the allotment and with their support sessions, and are keen to hear from anyone who has an interest in gardening and in working alongside young people.

Anyone interested should contact The Project by emailing info@theprojectyp.org .uk or call 07970 167341.

"Opinions expressed may not be the views of Marie Curie, but come and join in, and then enjoy Marie Curie's 'Blooming Great Tea Party', with a chance to get signed copies of Ann's autobiography and other books.

The event starts at 2.30pm on Sunday, June 19th. Tickets at £10 each are available from Archway Bookshop in Axminster and on 01297 33655.

Tai chi fundraiser at Weycroft Bridge

MACMILLAN Cancer Support will benefit from a tai chi morning in Axminster on Sunday, June 19th.

The event is organised by ABC Tai Chi in the grounds of Weycroft Bridge Bed and Breakfast from 10.30 am-12.30pm.

The session is described as "suitable for everyone", with a suggested donation of £5 to include a hot drink and homemade cake.

A previous tai chi day at the same venue, held in April, raised almost £100 for the town's tourist information centre.

Allan Howlings of ABC Tai Chi said: "It was a great day and we carried on with the tai chi for four hours (pictured).

Car park mural completed

THE Axminster Arts car park mural has been completed.

Axminster Arts commissioned local artist Steve Fisher to lead the community project, tasked with producing a colourful mural.

Part of the Axminster-themed mural was erected a number of years ago, originally adorning the frontage of the dilapidated garage before demolition.

Site owner Hallmark Estates is in the process of turning the site into a car park, and the complete mural will be unveiled as part of the opening ceremony on a date to be announced.

EU: In or Out evening at the Guildhall

SUPPORTERS of both the 'Leave' and 'Remain' camps are welcome to the EU Referendum Evening in Axminster Guildhall on Tuesday, June 21st.

Event organiser Paul Hayward said: "I've been to 'In' and 'Out' events. If you go to 'In', all you get is In people and vice versa – this will have both and be balanced."

Mr Hayward is the new Mayor of Axminster, but stressed that he is organising the referendum evening in his capacity as a resident of the town.

He added: "Whether you are a Brexiteer or a Remainer, In or Out, you are welcome to come along and hear both sides of the debate."

The event will be more of a "an informative research evening than hustings".

There will also be video presentations from both sides and campaign literature. Because the Out video is longer than the In one, Axminster resident Jeremy Walden will make a brief speech for the In side to achieve balance.

Donations to cover expenses or an item of tinned food to the local foodbank would be welcome. The event starts at 7pm.

Lifesavers reunite with couple

THE action taken by an Axminster couple helped save the life of a fellow tourist and led to an international friendship.

It all started in March 2014 when John and Corinne Cloud were holidaying in Cayo Coco, Cuba.

They were about a quarter-of-a-mile out to sea, with John swimming and Corinne standing in the water admiring the view.

The idyllic holiday setting was suddenly disturbed by a man further out screaming for help.

John couldn't hear the man but Corinne quickly alerted her husband.

They could both see what looked like a body in the water next to the man screaming for help.

In a split second they decided on a strategy that would help save the life of a young woman.

Corinne made it towards shore to summon help whilst John, a former firefighter, turned into 'Bay-watch' mode.

He said: "I ran, waded and then had to swim."

After a quick assessment he decided to bring the lifeless woman ashore as quickly as possible.

John recalled: "I carried her as fast as I could. I was 64 at the time and she was a dead weight. A lifeguard met me in the water and carried her to shore. He must have been a fit bloke, he ran like hell."

Having dealt with serious situations as a firefighter, John said: "I thought there was not a lot of hope."

"They worked on her on the beach, and then lost her a few times in the ambulance on the way to hospital."

But there was to be a happy ending although John and Corinne got very little information the next two days.

A lifeguard told them that the woman was in hospital, but that was the extent of information available.

On the third day, however, the young couple returned to the hotel, happy and grateful.

John said: "They came looking for us and I was pleasantly surprised to see them."

Their names were Adam and Ira; he is Canadian and she is Filipino.

They live together in Montreal, Canada, and had travelled to Cuba to celebrate her 23rd birthday.

It appeared that something had gone horribly wrong when Ira was snorkelling, and she nearly died as a result.

The two couples happened to be staying at the same hotel, but did not know of each other before the incident.

John explained: "They were just strangers to us, we hadn't even seen them at the hotel before."

Not only did the two couples stay in touch after the holiday had ended – two years after the Cuban drama there was a reunion in Montreal.

And there was a fifth person involved – the young couple's daughter Isabella, born in October last year.

Recalling the drama two years earlier, John said: "It was Corinne who heard him [Adam], I was swimming."

"If Corinne hadn't heard him, Ira and that little girl would not have been here today."

The couples had a great time in Canada, with John and Corinne combining their visit with a stay in New York.

When out for a Chinese meal in Montreal, John's fortune cookie message said: "Your kindness will bring you long-lasting friends."

MP's praise for heritage centre

LOCAL MP Neil Parish has praised Axminster Heritage Centre following a private tour.

Unable to attend the official opening in the spring, Mr Parish asked if he could take a look at the centre at another time.

Dr John Church, chairman of the trustees, was happy to be of service and invited the MP for a private tour of the centre.

Mr Parish said: "The new heritage centre is a wonderful asset for Axminster and a great attraction for both residents and visitors."

East Devon celebrates The EAST Devon came out in force over the weekend to celebrate our longest-serving monarch's 90th birthday.

Queen Elizabeth II turned 90 on April 21st but, as is tradition within the royal family, her birthday was celebrated across the country on the second Saturday in June.

Thousands packed streets, playing fields and parks, donned Union Jack clothing and lifted a glass to celebrate the Queen's big day.

As usual the weather threatened to dismantle several plans on Sunday but eventually stayed dry across the weekend allowing the public to have a good old knees-up to celebrate.

Axminster's Minster Green, the Land of Canaan in Ottery St Mary, Primley Church in Sid-mouth and Cliff Field Gardens in Seaton all saw revellers enjoying themselves with a mix of live music, fun competitions and good food.

Children's choir to sing Evensong

SHUTE: A choir from Shute Primary School will sing Evensong at St Michael's Church this month.

The traditional service, which will start at 3.45pm on Tuesday, June 21st, is set to include a wide range of music, from plainsong and Latin carols to an African spiritual and other music specially composed for the service by local organist Peter Lea-Cox, who will also be playing at the service.

The school children will be joined by another local choir, and the service will be followed by tea and cakes in the church.

A spokesperson for the organisers said: "This Evensong follows a similar service sung at Shute by a community choir earlier in the year at which there was a substantial congregation."

"Members of the community will be warmly welcome to attend."

ROUND UP

KILMINGTON: WI adviser Jenny Roberts attended the May meeting, at which minutes from last year's Annual Meeting were read and signed and the committee agreed to stand on bloc.

The resolutions to be put forward at the National Conference in Brighton were discussed and voted for. Those concerning food waste and the rights of dementia patients were carried.

The financial statement was discussed and there is a satisfactory balance.

The flower competition was won by Phyllis. With no speaker this month a hearty supper provided by members was enjoyed as there was longer to socialise.

Next month John Lowe will speak about a bomber which crashed on Dartmoor during the war, killing all crew. It was thought to have hit high ground, however 70 years later documents were found to suggest otherwise. All are welcome to this talk in the village hall on June 9th at 7pm.

COLYTON: Outgoing president Jean Hutton welcomed members old and new to the Annual Meeting and also Mary Andrews, WI advisor.

Members had enjoyed the group meeting at Musbury and Whitford. There was an invitation to a garden party at Beer WI on July 1st – Red, White and Blue attire desired – and to enter 'Colyton's Got Talent' in September. Members will go on the Otterton Mill Walk and others the Bicton photography course.

A resolution on access for personal carers of dementia patients when in hospital was passed unanimously. A second on food waste from supermarkets was felt to be a complex subject so was left to the representative.

Members re-elected to the Committee were Margaret Barker, Brenda Clark, Sallie Herniman, Liz Lucas, Penny Cogan, Jean Hutton and Sheila Derwent, with Francine Coultas co-opted. Shelia Derwent accepted the role of President and Sallie Herniman Vice President.

Flowers were presented to Jean Hutton, Sallie Hern-

Ladies enjoy heritage

AXMINSTER ROYAL BRITISH LEGION: The Women's Section took a trip to Axminster museum's new location at the Heritage Centre, Thomas Whitty House recently, with many of the members seeing their old school photographs in a trip down memory lane.

There was wealth of memorabilia, particularly Axminster's long and illustrious history. Information on the history of many local industries, some surviving today, not to mention the wonderful Axminster carpet on loan, and Granny Rockett's sweetshop, brought forth lots of comments and chuckles. Congratulations to all involved, the centre is a credit to the town and well worth a visit.

The meeting continued with afternoon tea in the Senior Citizens' Centre and a reminder that the annual Garden Party will be held at the Chairman's House on July 15th at 2.30 pm. Neil Parish, MP will attend as well as the new mayor, Councillor Paul Hayward. Both have been supporters of the RBL and the Women's Section in particular.

Exeter are holding their Armed Forces Day on July 2nd to commemorate the Battle of the Somme. Standard Bearer Valerie Clarke will be in the parade and individual members wishing to attend are advised to drive to the park and ride to avoid getting caught up in the event.

iman, Elizabeth Cochran, Joan McDougall and to Jacky Roberts Wake, who organised an Edwardian Tea Party to celebrate the WI's Anniversary.

Tea was served by Susan Kightly and Margaret Martin with cakes provided by members.

Joyce's cup cake competition was won by Susan Kightly. Photo of Colyton was won by Jean Underdown, second Maxine Whetstone, third Katie Darby.

Flower of the Month: first Jean Hutton, second Katie Darby, third Jean Underdown, fourth Penny Cogan.

The next meeting is on the third Tuesday in the month at St John's Hall. The speaker will be Lynda Kettle, set designer for the BBC. Visitors welcome.

Talk on work of the British Red Cross

HONITON PROBUS CLUB: At the May meeting, the membership received a most informative talk by Paul Morgan, Community Legacy Manager from the British Red Cross, based in Taunton.

The speaker explained the origins of his organisation in the nineteenth century and the way in which the society has developed since then.

This included its work assisting the main emergency services during major incidents, such as the flooding of the Somerset levels in 2014 and, in particular, how they help and support other trouble spots around the world such as the current refugee crisis in Syria and the 2014 typhoid outbreak in Sierra Leone.

He discussed with members how fundraising is conducted and the way in which aid is delivered in a totally unbiased manner.

The club meets on the last Thursday of each month at the Heathfield Inn in Honiton.

Anyone interested in joining can call John on 01404 43392, google Honiton Probush Club or visit www.sites.google.com/site/probushoniton/home

Artist espouses the great outdoors

SEATON AND DISTRICT ART SOCIETY: The May meeting was rescued when, after an urgent message went out as the scheduled demonstrator had to cancel, professional watercolourist David James valiantly drove all the way from Bedford to Seaton to paint a view of the Lake District to a packed Seaton audience.

At the same meeting, members were encouraged to sign up for the many tasks involved in the Society's August Exhibition.

The next demonstration, on June 6th, featured popular local artist Linda White, who spends a lot of time outdoors accompanied by a small travelling stool and special backpack that contains everything she might need for a few hours of 'plein air' sketching. She brought both of them with her.

Included the backpack were a peaked cap and sunscreen, sketchbooks, 4B pencils, disposable drawing pens, and art pens that will dilute in water. 'Always work in pen' said Linda, 'so you can't rub out'.

She emphasised the value of drawing. Anybody can do it. You don't have to be an artist. The simple act of putting pencil to paper is therapeutic and liberating because it frees you from everyday life. While drawing, you forget everything else. It puts you in the zone.

You might catch a glimpse of Linda wearing her cap and sitting on her stool on the East beach in Lyme Regis sketching whatever takes her fancy, or down at the water's edge picking up bits of broken china, fragments of coloured glass ground smooth by the waves, or buttons and pebbles. She takes them home, sorts them out and uses them in her 3D work.

EU debate goes on

■ I REFER to the letters from Derek Sturch of Honiton and Sean Day-Lewis of Colyton [May 24th] in response to mine.

When I started to read the letter from Mr Sturch I was beginning to think he had had a change of mind. It was his last paragraph that makes me think he wishes to remain when he refers to David Cameron. The confusing part for me (and many others) is that our PM did not succeed in his demands which were minimal in any event. Numerous others have mentioned that he asked for very little and got even less. But the political spin does win some people over.

Regarding the comments from Mr Day-Lewis he may find it worth his time to watch a rerun of Jeremy Paxman's programme on BBC during Thursday 19th entitled Who Really Rules Us? Anyone can see it via the BBC iplayer. I believe the staffing levels for the EU machine exceeds 50,000 with over 10,000 (yes, ten thousand) being paid more than Mr Cameron per annum. Mr Day-Lewis should reconsider asking questions such as his one on fishing. Of course there need to be limits to the volume of each species caught, so is he saying that we need to be governed by others to make those decisions because our politicians, plus their aides, are too incompetent to make decisions themselves? And would it not be a good idea to allow our fishermen to have the lion's share of the catch in our waters as opposed to other nations?

With regard to our MEPs they are minuscule in total number compared to the overall quantity. Even if all of our MEPs (irrespective of which political party they represent) all ganged up and became one voice they are completely outnumbered. Each time another

Thanks to nurseries

■ A BIG thank-you to Otter Nurseries for their courtesy, honesty, efficiency and kindness.

Recently we visited their nursery to spend vouchers we had been given. When I came to pay, both my diary and vouchers were missing, either dropped or left somewhere. I reported this at the payout, when we got home, reported it again the next day. Nothing had been found and we were about to go on holiday. The receptionist said that if they were found she would ring me up.

We were away for a week. Never thinking I'd see my diary again, or the loose vouchers, I was over the moon to find a message, on our return, to say the items had been found. They were keeping them in the office at Otter Nurseries.

Astonished and delighted, we were pleased to visit them again, receive the items intact and to spend them. Well done Otter Nurseries! I never discovered who found them, but thank you again.

country joins the EU our percentage representation becomes diluted even further. Watch Paxman's programme for true facts.

We all know that there are claims and counterclaims including a considerable amount of 'statistics' from both our Prime Minister and Chancellor. They have been spouting them with alarming regularity telling us how dreadful things will be for many, many years to come. Strange that they do not tell us about how much money each year we will be paying into the European Union or how many people will decide to come to the UK. Further just where will all the new homes required be built for an expanding population? Inevitably on green field sites. Is the Green Party happy with that thought? And as to how it is considered security is safer under the present arrangement defies logic. I bet you lock your front door at night!

Sorry gentlemen. Staying in is a frightful prospect. If we vote to stay in then the UK deserves what it gets and not gets what it deserves.

Consultation closing on contentious West Hill

■ THE deadline for responding to the East Devon District Council consultation on the formation of the West Hill Parish Council and its proposed boundary is Thursday, June 16th.

The contentious issue is the boundary and it is vital that everyone has their say on this matter. Unfortunately, there appears to be a campaign targeting West Hill and trying to undermine the boundary as follows:

- Seven members of Ottery St Mary Town Council (including the Mayor and Deputy Mayor) describing themselves "concerned residents" have circulated an inaccurate and controversial leaflet to the Ottery parish (excluding West Hill) suggesting that West Hill are attempting a 'land grab'. This is misleading. We are just requesting the current West Hill Ward boundary, which has been in existence since 1894 and is based on the church parish boundary created in 1863.

- The proposed boundary would remove about 50 per cent of our current ward area.

- Councillors from the other wards in Ottery Town Council are now campaigning to take land from West Hill to add to their wards. This is unreasonable and without merit.

- Ottery Town Council has paid for the distribution of official leaflets publicising public meetings in Ottery but not West Hill, in an attempt to disadvantage West Hill residents.

- Ottery Town Council has allowed the circulation of the controversial anti-West Hill leaflet together with the official town council leaflet – attempting to give the unofficial leaflet official status.

It is vital that we do not allow this negative campaign to influence the outcome of the consultation on the boundary.

We believe that Higher Metcombe and the rural farmland are both integral to the wider West Hill community – they are parts of the rural setting and ambience which needs to be protected for future generations. We urge you to write to East Devon District Council to explain your reasons why the land subject to the consultation is part of West Hill.

Please write to: EDDC/Community Governance Review, Room 70, Knowle, Sidmouth EX10 8HL or email: westhill@eastdevon.gov.uk before June 16th. You need to include your name and address.

MARGARET HALL,

Chairman, West Hill Parish Council Campaign

■ THE letter from Christopher Hall entitled "Beware what you ask for, Ottery Residents" [May 31st], writing not as an Ottery St Mary town councillor but personally, attacks the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor and five other town councillors regarding the proposed new West Hill boundary as proposed by East Devon District Council, leaves me in two minds; I don't know whether to be amazed or amused.

As a West Hill resident for over forty years, as opposed to the councillor's four or so, I would have thought that there was no good case for the establishment of a new Parish Council in the first instance as it will have a detrimental effect to the finances of Ottery Town Council, as well as imposing additional costs to the residents of West Hill. Mr Hall states that West Hill's contribution to council coffers have subsidised the other wards for years – what utter 'poppycock'. Where do the residents of West Hill go for a medical centre, chemist, hospital, secondary school, super market, bowls, cricket and soccer teams? They use the facilities in Ottery St Mary, of course. What is all the nonsense of plans to govern its own affairs? A parish council can only suggest and make recommendations, they have no power as such, that is vested in East Devon District Council.

I put it all down to the new speed bumps in West Hill Road, loosening a few screws. In reality I guess that I am amazed at the arrogance and amused at the audacity.

AXE VALE FESTIVAL

A Great Day Out for ALL the Family!

WELCOME to the 22nd Axe Vale Festival. We hope you enjoy the show. Over the years the show has changed and I remember the 1st year we did not have a Food Hall, now it is a flourishing busy marquee which many visitors enjoy. I am sad to say the Axminster Horticultural Society felt unable to get together enough help to run their marquee this year. We will miss the large array of produce and craft that the people of Axminster and surrounding district have produced. Many organisations find it difficult to recruit hard working knowledgeable people that have a small amount of time to put to a project that is trying to make the lives of others better. As Chairman of the Axe Vale Festival we have two main aims- To create a great show for Axminster and raise money for local organisations of the Axe Valley. So if you feel you can put a little into a local organisation it will make a big difference to help many. I would like to thank all the committee and the many helpers who give freely their time and talents. Finally to you our loyal visitors, it is a great pleasure to see you here. Have fun at the show.

NATIONAL CARE HOME OPEN DAY

CARE HOME OPEN DAY IS TAKING PLACE FOR THE 4TH TIME ON 17TH JUNE 2016.

ABOUT THE OPEN DAY

Care Home Open Day is a UK wide initiative inviting care homes to open their doors to their local communities.

Thousands of care homes across the UK take part each year, welcoming the public and arranging events and activities that help to create lasting links between care home residents and their local communities.

This is all about showing people what excellent care homes are really about and how they can be at the centre of local communities, developing relationships across the generations.

We're making some positive noise - and we want you to be part of it!

WHAT DO WE WANT TO ACHIEVE?

Care Home Open Day is about connecting people! We want to enrich the lives of the UK's care home residents by reminding people that care homes in every community are filled with unique, intelligent and charming characters, and run by special people that really do care.

But don't just take our word for it - we hope you will join us on 17th June 2016 - just click here to find a home near you and see what they're planning for the big day! If you are a care home who wants to join in, then just click on the registration tab at the top of the home page and set up an account.

In the mean time, we need everyone to get involved and help us by spreading the word - just like us on Facebook or share with your friends on Twitter, and together we'll make a difference that lasts!

OPEN DAY AT VAUGHAN LEE HOUSE CARE HOME

THE BENEFITS OF OPEN DOORS

Care Home Open Day is an opportunity for care homes to open their doors once a year to their local communities to create links between care home residents and their local communities and to show that care homes are filled with interesting people run by staff who care.

Recent research highlights that where care homes permanently open their doors to the local community, the positive impacts go far beyond creating links and dispelling myths. Residents experience improvements to their well-being with relatives, staff, volunteers, and the home itself also benefiting.

BENEFITS OF VOLUNTEERS

The evaluation of the Volunteering in Care Homes Project found that volunteers recruited to roles to befriend residents or to support them in social activities has a significant impact on the residents' social and emotional wellbeing.

The involvement of volunteers delivers fundamental socialisation, company and 'someone to talk to'. This includes providing long term one-to-one befriending, help to settle within the home, support in overcoming bereavement and reduced distress and anxiety. This in turn impacts on relatives, offering peace of mind and minimising negative feelings of anxiety or guilt. It is, "someone else to come in and brighten up the day of their relative", [Activities co-ordinator].

For the staff, the involvement of volunteers has a positive impact on their satisfaction with their job (68%), retention (61%), stress levels (71%) and feelings of job security (54%). The reasons for these findings are unclear but one explanation is that volunteers add capacity, in the form of time and skills, in roles that complement, not replace, staff roles.

Volunteers are evidence that the care home is safe, responsive, caring, effective, and well led. Staff in the project recognised that the presence of volunteers could impact positively on their being able to achieve a higher rating from the Care Quality Commission.

The benefits are not all one sided. Volunteering is a reciprocal activity with volunteers gaining in skills, experience and confidence from their involvement. In particular, young people's experience of volunteering can help them to secure a place in employment or further education and some in the project even saw a career for themselves in the sector.

As with Care Home Open Day, those who have a good experience within the home act as ambassadors and share that positive experience with others, challenging negative misconceptions about older people, dementia and social care and breaking down barriers between the home and community.

MAKING THE TRANSITION

Moving from an annual open day to reap the benefits of permanently keeping your doors open to the community does require some planning and investment. But help is at hand.

The Volunteering in Care Homes Toolkit brings together the practical learning from the project and contains guidance, references to other helpful resources and organisations, and templates on how to set up a volunteering programme in a care home.

The research highlights, however, that to maximise the potential of volunteering, the toolkit needs to be accompanied by investment in staff time and skills to take forward the volunteer management role. Without this time and function, volunteers will not feel supported or valued, leading to high volunteer turnover which in turn will unsettle residents and relatives and create further work for staff, as they seek to recruit, induct and train new volunteers to fill the vacant roles.

CREWKERNE is a bustling little market town in the heart of South Somerset. With around 7,000 residents, the town still has many features of yesteryear and retains an enchanting nostalgia for times past. This is encapsulated in the Neo-Georgian honey coloured buildings that can be found in the centre of the town.

While on the surface the town seems like it could be a 19th Century film set, all the necessities of modern life are available almost within touching distance. Visitors to the town can find a variety of businesses; independent boutiques, specialist mobility shops like Regency Care and Mobility and great gift stores such as Bluebird and Buttercup situated in the charming George Shopping Centre alley - a lovely historic space immediately opposite the front of the Town Hall. On the high street you'll find independent hardware stores, a treasure trove of antiques and some fascinating small, family businesses.

Crewkerne has its share of small industrial estates with cutting-edge technology businesses and manufacturers, and visible from many parts of the town, the trees and fields of the beautiful South Somerset countryside which surrounds the community.

Crewkerne is lucky to have a wide selection of eateries, from small cafes such as Bilbys to local pubs, a traditional hotel in the market square and a selection of take-aways. Crewkerne also boasts a Farmers' Market and other visiting stalls. A visitor will also be surprised to find a variety of leisure outlets including the Crewkerne Aqua Centre, an independent museum, and an excellent Local Information Centre at our Town Hall.

With its own hospital, GP surgeries, several dentists, no fewer than five schools and excellent public services, Crewkerne is a superb place to visit - or, of course, live.

Bristol Old Vic Theatre School bring A Midsummer Night's Dream to The Beehive

THE HIGHLY acclaimed Bristol Old Vic Theatre School will perform their latest production, the much loved A Midsummer Night's Dream on Friday, June 17th. In this innovative production the story is set not in Athens but a 19th Century Yorkshire Woollen Mill; a time when a mill owner was an autocratic Industrial Magistrate, wielding political, industrial and economic power that influenced the lives of all those around them. The whole infrastructure of the town stemmed from the Mill, providing housing, schools, a hospital, libraries and dawn to dusk employment. The Director, Christopher Scott felt this setting and period gave a context that echoed Shakespeare's Theseus as Lord of all he surveyed. Other characters then became workers, supervisors, foreign suppliers of materials and even a Clergyman upholding the morals of Victorian society. This production has also taken a fresh look on casting and turned a blind eye to gender, as did Shakespeare himself, allowing in some cases, women to play men just as Shakespeare allowed men to play women. This cross gender casting is becoming more evident in contemporary classical productions, allowing for exciting interpretations and the questioning of gender stereotypes. It also adds to the mayhem and comedy in this enduring masterpiece.

Since its foundation in the 1940s by Laurence Olivier The Bristol Old Vic Theatre School has been recognised as one of the leading drama schools in the country. This regional tour is a fantastic opportunity to see the stars of tomorrow, already highly accomplished actors, here in Bridport. One not to be missed. Tickets are £12 or £10, available online at www.beehivehoniton.co.uk or by calling 01404 384050.

A tribute to trad with pedigree

O'Shea and O'Gaukroger

NOSTALGIA ain't what it used to be ... but it's alive and well whenever the Pedigree Jazz Band come to town! The band specialises in playing traditional jazz and they are bringing their highly acclaimed "Salute To Trad Jazz 2016" show to Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, July 1st.

The show celebrates the style of jazz popularized by the likes of Chris Barber, Acker Bilk and Kenny Ball in the late 1950's and early 60's, a period that became known as the "Trad Boom". Many of the record releases that made it into the hit parade at that time aren't often heard in today's jazz clubs, perhaps because numbers like Midnight in Moscow, Green Leaves of Summer, Chimes Blues and the William Tell Overture require a certain amount of careful rehearsal to do them justice. They are, however, included in the "Salute to Trad Jazz" show, much to the joy of trad fans, whose responses to the show include comments such as "It's like listening to a band in a jazz club back in the old days" and "a wonderful evening of nostalgia for British 'pop' music, late 50s to early 60s, between Lonnie Donegan and the Beatles. Brilliant!"

Come along and enjoy an evening of pure toe tapping pleasure - but don't leave it too late to book, it's going to be a popular night!

The Pedigree Jazz Band play at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, July 1st at 8pm. Tickets are £14, and a pre-show supper is available at 7pm for £13 but must be pre-booked. For more details or to book call 01460 54973 or visit www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

A Kiss Card from Walter

CHARD Local Kids Society for Music and Drama (CLOKS) will be performing their latest show, A Kiss Card from Walter, on Wednesday, June 29th, Thursday, June 30th and Saturday, July 2nd.

The rehearsals for the show are in full swing at the moment and all the cast are working hard to make it one of the best productions ever!

The production is based on true stories from Chard over the years, giving the audience an insight into the historical past of the town.

The latest show holds special significance as sadly this will be many of the current cast's last production before they move on to university and employment. Some have been with CLOKS since it started 10 years ago, with many also in the middle of their A level exams.

Tickets for the latest production can be purchased from Barrons in Chard.

Money for Nothing

Europe's top tribute to Dire Straits

'Money for Nothing' was formed in 2000 as a tribute to one of the world's premier rock bands - Dire Straits. The abundant energy and the excellence and musicality of their performance makes Money for Nothing a "must see" for any rock enthusiast or Dire Straits fan.

Fronting the band is the brilliant guitarist and Mark Knopfler sound-alike Aled Williams. Behind him the line-up features top-class and experienced musicians that make this band a worthy tribute to Dire Straits. Aled and the entire band have studied Dire Straits in great depth to re-create their tribute to be as close as possible to the real thing.

Featuring all the hits from their first ever single 'Sultans of Swing' to 'Brothers in Arms', 'Walk of Life' and their last single released in 1992 'The Bug' - also the legendary 'Money For Nothing' (ft Sting) which was the first ever video played on MTV. The band also include versions from 'On the Night' and 'Live @ The BBC'.

The 'Money for Nothing' stage show has been performed all over Britain and the world, at all types of venues & events - from music festivals, theatres and venues. 2010 saw them headline the main night on Europe's Biggest Tribute Festival. The band has also had the pleasure of performing as show opener for the legendary Roy Wood on part of his Theatre Tour. Sept 2011 saw them take their show to India to perform at a sell-out concert where they headlined an event held at one of Bangalore's largest Amphitheatres. Their special appearance was featured in the world's largest selling English-language daily newspaper, The Times of India. In January 2015 they also had a very successful tour of the UAE with performances in Bahrain and Dubai - which has led to them being tipped as the worlds no.1.

Money for Nothing play at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Saturday, June 25th at 8pm. Tickets are £16.50 or £14 (concessions) in advance, or £18.50/£16 on the door. A TheatreFriends discount is available. For more details visit www.marinetheatre.com.

Mr Handel comes West

AN ILLUSTRIOUS line-up of classical music superstars will be gathering at Whitelackington in Somerset on Sunday, June 19th for a spectacular fundraising concert in aid of the unique West Country charitable trust, Concerts in the West (Charity no 1139301). Concerts in the West, has for the past ten years, provided local audiences in Somerset, Devon and Cornwall with top quality performances by young professional musicians. The event is being held to raise funds to support future series of concerts organised by the charity.

Leading the concert will be the internationally renowned conductor and harpsichordist Laurence Cummings who will partner the dazzling young soprano Ruby Hughes in a delightful mixed programme consisting of arias composed by Handel for the Italian singer Giulia Frasi, as well as songs and music by his

Ruby Hughes

Laurence Cummings

Baroque contemporaries. Ruby says she feels a particular affinity with her 18th Century soprano counterpart as her favourite Handel roles are the ones he composed for Frasi.

Additional choral performances will be given by an elite choral group - The Phoenix Singers - who will be directed by Laurence in performances of choruses from Handel's oratorios, Susanna and Hercules.

Laurence and Ruby will also be joined by a trio of string players from the dynamic Kruger Quartet, including violinists Helen Kruger and Claudia Norz and cellist Carina Drury, whose expressive playing entertained Concerts in the West audiences in three noteworthy performances recently (March 2016).

Commenting on this special charity concert, Catherine Hodgson the founder and director of Concerts in the West, said: "I want to say a huge thank you to Lord and Lady Cameron for hosting this event to support Concerts in the West. It will be a wonderful evening with our patron the conductor and harpsichordist Laurence Cummings who will be accompanying the award-winning soprano Ruby Hughes. Laurence is an internationally acclaimed Handel specialist and he and Ruby are embarking on an exciting project to record a number of the arias Handel wrote for the Italian soprano Giulia Frasi, which they will be performing for us at Whitelackington. If the weather is good people will be able to wander round the gardens after the concert as well as drink and eat.

"We are also delighted to welcome back members of the Kruger Quartet, who will be playing on original 18th Century instruments and The Phoenix Singers, an exceptional Taunton based chamber choir.

"I am extremely grateful to Laurence, Ruby and Helen who are all giving their professional services free to support Concerts in the West.

Laurence Cummings said: "I am delighted to be involved in this special fund raising concert, which will enable Concerts in the West to continue to offer support and encouragement to the younger generation of musicians who reap huge benefits from the high-profile of this charity. I am proud to be a patron of Concerts in the West. The programming it offers is highly imaginative and the venues are so charming that their annual concert series draws in audiences who are not so familiar with the enriching qualities of classical music as well as the die-hard fans. Concerts in the West is an invaluable asset to the West Country and Catherine Hodgson's tireless work in organising these concerts is to be applauded."

Tickets for the evening cost £24 and includes the concert, which commences at 4pm in St Mary's church (doors will open at 3.30pm to allow people to take their seats) and a post-performance reception at 6pm in the Great Hall, Whitelackington Manor, Ilminster, Somerset, TA19 9EF. Concerts in the West will receive the full amount from each ticket sold.

To order tickets and reserve a seat, please contact email concertsinthewest@gmail.com or call Catherine Hodgson on 01460 53500 proximately 1973 when it was used for a number of different businesses.

In 1981 The White Lion was turned into a licensed restaurant and was bought in 1984 by Claudio and Maureen and became a traditional English Carvery restaurant.

Claudio retired several years ago and Maureen carried on the business and is still there 29 years later. It is now one of the oldest businesses in town.

The front of the building blends into the long row of terraced properties in Hermitage Street, but upon entering the building through the very impressive front door everything changes. It is charming, warm and welcoming, and stretches through to South Street at the back of the building.

There is a very comfortable bar and a charming courtyard which is illuminated at night and is used for drinks and coffee in the warmer weather.

The White Lion also has a table license with an extensive wine list, so you will be spoilt for choice when choosing your drinks to go with your meal.

5 TIPS FOR PLANNING A DECK OR PATIO

1. WHERE your garden gets the sun at different

by Julia Gray, Press Association

if they're too small for a lawn.

times of the day could make a big difference to how much you'll use your new deck or patio. The usual place to put it is near the house, so it's convenient for alfresco dining and entertaining, but there might be a better spot elsewhere. While most of us want a sunny deck or patio, some people prefer one with shade, which might mean putting it at the opposite end of the garden to the house.

2. When deciding on the location of your patio or deck, think about things like drainage (the manhole, or at least a rodding point, still needs to be accessible), where the doors to the garden are, and if the patio or deck will be overlooked. Also consider the prevailing winds, traffic noise, if any, and what you'll be looking out on when you sit and relax.

3. Decking is a good way to make sloping gardens usable, as an alternative to creating tiers. By extending the deck out from the house to cover the whole garden, you've solved the problem of an awkward, hard-to-use and even potentially dangerous (if you have small children) outside space. Decking can also be the best way to cover something that's already there, such as concrete or a dated patio, because you can go over the top of it. With small, courtyard gardens, decking or paving the whole space makes sense

4. It's important to have a patio or deck that's in proportion to the size of the house, and to use colours and materials that work well with the building, unless you want a deliberate contrast. While it should be in keeping, your design can also be creative. Decking can be built on different levels, with things like built-in benches and planters that make it more practical and interesting. You can do a similar thing with paving - an easy way to add interest is to incorporate a circle or other design into your patio using a paving kit.

5. Before you start building your patio or deck, check if any permissions are required. If your home's leasehold, for example, you may need the freeholder's consent and also planning permission because flats and maisonettes don't have permitted development rights. For general advice about planning permission, click on the deck or patio on the Interactive House at www.planningportal.gov.uk, or ask your local council for specific advice about your home.

PRODUCTS OF THE WEEK

FATHER'S Day is coming up on June 19, and if your dad enjoys decorating, Screwfix has some great gifts, including the T-Class Synthetic Bristle Paintbrushes (£9.99, Screwfix). There are five excellent brushes in the set (from 12mm to 50mm), with lovely wooden handles and soft, fine bristles that make getting a good finish easy.

When there are lots of walls and ceilings to paint, dad will love the No Nonsense Scuttle Kit & 6 Sleeves (£14.99, Screwfix). This large, 14ltr paint scuttle has a lid to keep the paint fresh overnight and is ideal if dad likes mixing emulsions to create his own colours. You get six big, quality roller heads with it and a double-arm aluminium frame to hold them - a compatible extension pole is also required, but isn't supplied.

For a scuttle with everything included, there's the great-value Harris Decorators Kit 14 Piece Set (£29.99, Screwfix). It comprises a 9in and a mini roller frame, plus roller sleeves to fit them and a 14ltr scuttle, also with a lid, so there's everything dad needs to get started - just add paint.

HOW-TO TIP

GARDEN wood, such as fencing and sheds, often comes pre-treated, but some pre-treatments make the wood so orange that covering it with a nicer colour isn't easy. Applying pale garden-wood paint, such as cream, can even turn the wood pink - several coats are usually necessary for it to get near cream. Do a tester patch and if this is the case, consider switching to a stronger colour that will cover in fewer coats. Alternatively, use a pale exterior wood paint, such as Dulux Trade Weathershield Quick Dry Exterior Satin in Pure Brilliant White (£47.76 for 2.5ltr, Dulux) - this covers extremely orange garden wood in two or three coats.

Westcountry Chimney Services

WESTCOUNTRY Chimney Services are a professional company based in East Devon providing chimney services throughout Devon, Dorset and parts of Somerset.

Trained by the Guild of Master Chimney Sweeps, proving commitment to the chimney industry and demonstrating this commitment and professionalism by taking the time to pass the Guilds assessment.

We are fully insured and will supply a certificate for every flue swept.

Advice will be given on areas such as correct ventilation as this will help to improve the efficiency and safety of the appliance.

It is extremely important to regularly sweep your chimney flue to prevent soot build up within the flue which can cause a chimney fire.

Soot build up can cause damage to the flue, not only reducing the efficiency of the appliance but can cause dangerous fumes such as carbon monoxide leaking into your home thus why regular sweeping is imperative.

Included in our service:

An inspection of the flue will take place to check condition and see if there is any obstruction or damage to the flue, then

The appliance will be checked for any damage such as cracks and corrosion of the seals.

The flue will be swept using the correct equipment and all fall out will be cleaned up and removed.

Finally a smoke test will be done to confirm the appliance is drawing efficiently.

All prevention will be taken to stop any soot getting on to carpets or furnishings by the use of dust sheets, protective foot ware and a commercial vacuum. Westcountry services do a wide range of chimney flues including woodburners, range cookers, Agas and inglenooks.

Renault celebrates sponsorship of THE COLOR RUN with special edition Twingo

RENAULT is going the extra mile to celebrate its sponsorship of THE COLOR RUN, the Happiest 5k on the Planet, with the launch of a commemorative special edition Twingo city car.

The French car manufacturer is sponsoring the Yellow Color Zone of the UK series of THE COLOR RUN global events, where thousands of runners start the course in a white T-shirt and are covered in a rainbow of colours throughout the course.

Taking place at the heart of five nationwide cities that span Brighton to Glasgow and kicking off in London at Wembley Park on 12 June, THE COLOR RUN is all about having fun with friends and family and enjoying a truly colourful experience. The events are untimed and participants are invited to complete the course however they wish, be it running, walking, skipping, dancing or even cartwheeling!

For 2016, THE COLOR RUN is bringing the theme of an island holiday to each venue with its Tropicolor Tour, transforming the locations into bustling hives of fun, music and colour. The famous 'Color Throws' will welcome participants across the line in a frenzy of colour and the fun will continue at the Finish Festival with entertainment from a mix of DJs and MCs.

As well as sponsoring the yellow section of each course in homage to the vibrant colour of its iconic badge, Renault will be adding even more colour to each city's event with the display of the new Twingo THE COLOR RUN Special Edition.

Fun, innovative and guaranteed to leave people smiling, the Renault Twingo is the ideal match for THE COLOR RUN. Based on the popular Twingo Play version, that features air conditioning, daytime running lights, electric front windows, DAB tuner with Bluetooth®, AUX and USB connectivity, and the R&GO® application that turns any compatible smartphone into an infotainment and navigation system, the Twingo THE COLOR RUN Special Edition adds an electric panoramic fabric folding sunroof, 15-inch 'Exception' alloy wheels, THE COLOR RUN-exclusive floor mats and the choice of any compatible Exterior Touch Pack and Interior Style Pack, which add colour coordinated details to the inside and outside of the striking city car.

The five-door Twingo THE COLOR RUN Special Edition is available in all of the Twingo's large array of colours – including the new Ultraviolet metallic shade – and customers can make it even more distinctive with optional Special Edition decals.

Powering the striking Twingo is the SCe 70 petrol engine, the three-cylinder, 999cc engine in the Twingo THE COLOR RUN Special Edition returns fuel economy of 56.6mpg (Combined) and emits 112g/km CO2.

Compared to a Twingo Play specified with the same extras, the Twingo THE COLOR RUN Special Edition offers a customer saving of £800. The Twingo THE COLOR RUN Special Edition is priced from £10,495 and is available to order now.

James Boyer, Marketing Director, Groupe Renault UK & Ireland, said: "We're very excited to partner with THE COLOR RUN, especially as it brings something new and fun to the city, just like the Renault Twingo. Both are all about enjoying urban environments to the maximum and colour is also a major part of the Twingo with the car's many personalisation options offering drivers the chance to tailor it to their own unique style to really cut a dash around town."

Andy Knee, Managing Director EMEA of Mass Participation Sports, at organisers IMG, commented: "We're delighted Renault has chosen to launch a special edition Twingo to celebrate its partnership with THE COLOR RUN. The Twingo's playful personality is sure to connect well with our 'Color Runners' who are incredibly passionate about immersing themselves in the Happiest 5k on the Planet. We look forward to seeing these dynamic and stylish cars at our COLOR RUN events and on roads across the country."

THE COLOR RUN events will take place at:

London – June 12th
Manchester – July 2nd
Glasgow – July 17th
Birmingham – August 20th
London – September 4th
Brighton – September 17th

Entry is available at www.thecolor-run.co.uk

Cool, nimble and practical, the award-winning Twingo offers an extremely innovative take on the city car. Its rear-engined, rear-wheel-drive layout meaning that interior space is truly maximised and it is incredibly easy to park, manoeuvre or do a U-turn because the front wheels are not restricted by the engine. Twingo is available with a huge range of colour, trim and personalisation options so that buyers can create the exact look they want. Twingo comes as standard with five doors and is priced from £9,495.

The Twingo is powered by a choice of two petrol engines – the SCe 70 and the turbocharged TCe 90 Stop & Start. Both endow the Twingo with the performance to match its agile, nimble handling. All versions feature a five-speed manual gearbox, while a six-speed EDC dual-clutch automatic transmission is also available on models with the TCe 90 engine.

As with all new Renaults, Twingo is covered by a four-year warranty that offers unlimited-mileage cover in the first two years and then two further years of protection up to 100,000 miles. Four years Renault Assistance cover is also included.

For more information on the Renault Twingo, visit www.renault.co.uk

UK prices announced for the new Abarth 124 Spider

PRICING and specification for the all-new Abarth 124 Spider have been announced by Fiat Chrysler Automobiles UK, ahead of the stunning new car's arrival here this summer.

And with a starting price of £29,565 OTR for the 1.4 TJet 170hp Manual, the new two-seater roadster represents outstanding value for money.

The new Abarth 124 Spider marks the return of the 'Spider' badge, and is the natural heir of the original model launched in 1972. The 2016 car incorporates performance, technology and iconic Italian style as the key factors of a very successful line-up.

Equipped with a powerful four-cylinder 1.4-litre MultiAir Turbo engine, the new spider delivers 170 hp and 250 Nm of torque. With a top speed of 143 mph the car can go from 0 to 62mph in 6.8 seconds. Furthermore, as the sound of the engine really matters in an Abarth, the Record Monza exhaust comes as standard, generating a unique growl.

The spider is available with a six-speed manual or the automatic Sequenziale Sportivo gearbox. The manual is characterised by quick and accurate shifting with a short-throw, direct lever, while the Sequenziale Sportivo gearbox, with steering wheel-mounted paddle shift, exploits all of the engine's torque.

Each car is tested and certified by an Abarth technician who applies a metal plaque showing the sequential number of each car to certify the exclu-siveness of the Abarth 124 Spider: it's a unique number for a unique customer.

Full pricing for the new Abarth 124 Spider is as follows:

124 Spider 1.4 TJet 170hp Manual £29,565

124 Spider 1.4 TJet 170hp Automatic £31,605

Five body colours are available, emphasising sport and heritage: special solid "Turini 1975 White" and "Costa Brava 1972 Red", metallic "Isola d'Elba 1974 Blue", "Portogallo 1974 Grey" and "San Marino 1972 Black".

The new Abarth 124 spider has a three-gauge instrument binnacle featuring a large central rev counter, a speedometer on the right and a data display on the left allowing the driver to monitor all key driving information at a glance.

Standard equipment includes climate control system, cruise control, adjustable, electrically-folding door mirrors, and an infotainment system with ergonomic, selector dial on the centre console. The system features a 7-inch colour display, DAB digital tuner, MP3 player, two USB ports, AUX input, and Bluetooth connectivity.

There is also a stereo with four speakers while, for superior sound quality, a Bose premium sound system with nine speakers, including dual headrest speakers on both seats and a subwoofer, is available as an option. A satellite navigation system is also optional.

"The 124 Spider is a new car and a new chapter in the exciting Abarth story," says Gerry Southerington, Abarth brand manager. "It's what many of our existing customers have been waiting for, and I am confident we will now welcome a new group of owners into the Abarth family. Great looks, stunning performance and unique equipment will set the 124 Spider apart from other roadsters and I am excited about this car's UK launch."

Ford celebrates 40 years of the Fiesta with UK debut for new ST200

FORD will celebrate the 40th anniversary of its iconic Fiesta model at this year's Goodwood Moving Motor Show, part of the Press & Preview day on Thursday, June 23.

Central to the celebrations will be the introduction of the newly-upgraded

Fiesta ST200, which will make its UK debut at the event and will be available for visitors to drive up the Goodwood hillclimb course.

The Fiesta ST is already regarded as one of the best hot hatches ever built, so the arrival of the turbocharged, 1.6-litre version will be one of the most hotly-anticipated unveils of this year's Moving Motor Show.

The ST200 boasts 200PS (197bhp) and will accelerate from 0–62mph in 6.7 seconds, making it a compelling proposition for visitors who are lucky enough to pilot it up the 1.16-mile hillclimb.

As part of the same event, Ford will also show its new GT supercar. The main sFestival of Speed weekend will also be graced by Ford's GT race cars, fresh from the marque's return to the Le Mans 24 Hours earlier in June.

The Ford Fiesta first went on sale in 1976 and quickly became known as the 'first British supermini'. In the first three years of its production, Ford sold a million examples and it wasn't until 1980 that the Fiesta faced serious competition in the form of the Austin Metro. Over the past 40 years Ford has sold a total of 4.33 million Fiestas in Britain.

Goodwood Festival of Speed founder, Lord March, said: "The Fiesta is an icon of British motoring and it is marvellous that Ford has chosen the Festival of Speed to celebrate the car's 40th anniversary and debut the new ST200."

New FIAT 500S available to order in the UK

The new FIAT 500S is available to order in the UK with prices starting from just £12,950 OTR. Designed to appeal to customers who want the compact dimensions, low running costs and cheeky appeal of the FIAT 500 but in a sportier package, the new FIAT 500S has been comprehensively restyled with new sports bumpers front and rear, special side skirts and a rear spoiler, while the door handles, tailgate, "moustache", mirror fairings and 15-inch alloy wheels are finished in exclusive "Satin Graphite".

The FIAT 500S is also equipped with front fog lamps, tinted rear windows, a chrome-finish tailpipe, black-grained front air intakes and an eye-catching honeycomb grille. The standard 15-inch alloy wheels with their special "Satin Graphite" finish, and the optional 16-inch alloy wheels with a matt-black diamond treatment, are both new to the range while the colour palette has grown to include Electronica Blue metallic and Marching Green matte.

Inside, the new FIAT 500S is enhanced by black sport seats and a black roof lining which contrast with the door panels and seat edges, which are finished in blue, white or yellow. "Satin Graphite" detailing also features on the dashboard fascia and the special sports steering wheel and the interior can also be trimmed in optional Frau leather with white or light blue details for a splash of additional luxury. A full-colour, seven-inch TFT instrument display is standard on the new 500S, while the FIAT 500S Convertible adds an electric canvas roof with a heated glass rear window.

The dashboard of the new FIAT 500S incorporates FIAT's new Uconnect™ seven-inch HD LIVE touchscreen with a high resolution display as standard equipment. This system offers a wide range of functions, including Uconnect™ LIVE services, Bluetooth hands-free phone calling, voice recognition and a multitude of entertainment options including Bluetooth streaming, USB connectivity, a 3.5mm auxiliary jack, DAB digital radio and FM/AM radio. The system can be upgraded with the latest 3D TomTom navigation system for an additional £250.

The exclusive BeatsAudio™ sound system also debuts on the new FIAT 500S, priced at just £300. Developed in conjunction with Beats by Dr. Dre, the seven-speaker system has a total output of 440 watts and features a digital amplifier integrating an advanced equalisation algorithm, which can recreate the entire sound spectrum that an artist experiences during studio recording.

In terms of safety, the FIAT 500S is equipped with seven airbags as standard equipment, including a driver's side knee bag, as well as ABS with EBD (Electronic Brake Distribution) and a sophisticated ESC (Electronic Stability Control) system with ASR (Anti Slip Regulation), Hill Holder and HBA (Hydraulic Brake Assistance) to assist in emergency braking.

Four engines power the FIAT 500S so there's a version for every taste and budget: The 69hp 1.2-litre petrol and the 85hp 0.9 TwinAir petrol are both available with a five-speed manual or optional five-speed Dualogic automated manual transmission, while the 105hp 0.9 TwinAir petrol is fitted with a 6-speed manual as standard. FIAT remains the only brand to offer diesel-powered cars – FIAT 500, FIAT 500S and FIAT Panda – in the segment and the 95hp 1.3 litre MultiJet II in the 500S employs the best of today's small diesel engineering technology to reduce emissions to just only 89 grams of CO2 per kilometre and offer an official combined-cycle fuel efficiency figure of 83.1mpg.

The new FIAT 500S is on sale in the UK now, priced from £12,950 OTR when powered by the 1.2-litre 69hp petrol engine. The 85hp TwinAir version is priced from £14,250 OTR while the TwinAir 105hp is just £14,730 OTR. The FIAT 500S 1.3 MultiJet II 95hp is priced from £15,350 OTR. For images and the latest news on the new FIAT 500S and other models in the FIAT range visit www.FIATpress.co.uk.

sailing sutton bingham

Frost just too hot

AN overcast and practically windless morning greeted the seven sailors who recently visited Sutton Bingham SC for the Solo Open and round five of the Solo Western Travellers Series.

By 11.30am however, there was just enough NNE zephyrs for Principal Race Officer (PRO), Chris Bottomley to start race one. After a clean start on a remarkably unbiased line (considering the conditions), the patchy and shifty wind resulted in plenty of place changes up the first beat with Paul Teague, Howard Frear and Charles Davidson being the top three at the windward mark.

Steady, but slow, progress was made downwind before another shifty and tactical beat was undertaken. This time Paul and Howard rounded first and second with Richard Frost in third.

After a short reach to a "spreader mark", Richard split gybes with the leading pair just as a faint NW puff arrived. This was enough to give him the inside track and the lead at the next gybe mark which he then just managed to hold to the leeward mark.

Meanwhile, the wind gradually filled in from behind and the chasing boats all arrived at the leeward mark together, but with differing speeds, resulting in the inevitable 'complications'.

Having sorted the "leeward hairpin melee" and with a light but now steadier breeze for lap three, place changing was difficult and Richard, Howard and Paul went on to finish in first, second and third respectively.

Race two saw Richard get the best of the fickle shifts up the first beat and lead round the top mark just ahead of Howard. These two kept ahead of the fleet for the next lap, but the wind was fading fast.

By the time the fleet had rounded the windward mark for the second time the wind had all but gone and Paul and Charles decided it was time to throw in the towel and head back to Cheddar reservoir.

The remainder gritted their teeth, suffered the bruised shins of very light wind Solo sailing and finished the shortened course with Richard and Howard coming in first and second respectively followed by John Banks grinding out a painful third.

A short 'on the water' discussion, timed with some weak thermal wind resulted in the PRO setting a very short windward-leeward course for race three. It was a clean start by all with Howard taking advantage of a windshift on the left to quickly and establish a healthy lead, which he never relinquished.

Julian Doggrell rounded the top mark in second and a nifty move by Vernon Perkins allowed him to round third forcing, Richard back into fourth; a position he consolidated by touching the mark with his boom. Julian and Vernon chased Howard hard all the way to the finish but Howard remained calm under the pressure to take the win, whilst Vernon just pipped Julian on the line to take second.

John Banks overtook an increasingly frustrated Richard on the last beat to the finish to round out the top four.

Result: 1st, Richard Frost (Sutton Bingham SC), 2nd, Howard Frear (Sutton Bingham SC), 3rd, Vernon Perkins (South Cerney SC).

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

MARGARET Pearce and Alan Morbey ventured north of the border for the 2016 Edinburgh Marathon.

Reputed to be the fastest marathon course in the UK, the event runs through the heart of the city, past Holyrood House, the Scottish Parliament and along the lower slopes of Arthur's Seat before heading for the coast at Leith and along the so-called Golf Coast where there are more links golf courses than anywhere else in the world, finishing some miles out of town in Musselburgh.

On the warmest day of the year so far in Scotland, Margaret set a blistering pace and finished 1,338th in an amazing 3:42:19 whilst Alan finally broke the four hour barrier, 2,286th 3:58:07 both achieving PBs and Margaret gaining a "good for age" entry to next year's London Marathon.

There were 6,591 finishers, amongst them Ben Smith who is attempting to run 401 consecutive marathons. In this his 272nd straight marathon (!) he finished 1784th in 3:50:36. Only to 129 more go Ben...

On Sunday, Graham Newton ran the Puddletown Plod, a half marathon in the quiet leafy lanes of Dorset. A well marshalled, very undulating route in as pretty a road run as you could find anywhere. Graham managed to run around in 1:39 but could only manage fourth vet 60.

HONITON RC

with Judy Davey

LAST Wednesday, two Honiton Running Club members made the short journey to Yeovilton to compete in the third round of the Yeovilton Summer 5K Series.

Both athletes had competed just three days earlier at Fairford so still had the 10K in their legs and conditions were very humid which made running hard work.

James Denne finished in 3rd place in 15.49 and Gemma Collier broke her personal best by 15 seconds to finish 8th (39th overall) in the ladies race in 19.14.

There were 178 runners.

Maureen and Rob win Mixed Fours Trophy

HONITON with John Pawley

Competitions

ON MONDAY the Seniors had their home leg friendly match against Enmore GC of Bridgwater.

Both sets of golfers enjoyed the sunny if rather humid conditions and the result was a win for Alan Pollock's team by 4½ to 1½ – a more pleasing result than the last outing.

On Thursday the seniors were at Churston GC for their friendly match. This time the result was 5-1 in favour of the home team.

Mixed Group

THERE was a very good turnout for the Geoff and Sheila Banks Mixed Fours Trophy, an annual fixture which is open to regular Tuesday Mixed players.

Geoff and Sheila Banks ran the Tuesday Mixed for many years and Geoff donated the trophy following Sheila's death.

The format was a Treble Six and the clear winners with a magnificent score of 42 points were Maureen Tollemache and Rob Sexton.

Sally Chapman and Andy Sharland came second with 38 points, followed by Hilda Hoepelman and Bob Barnes with 37 points and Jan Portlock and Laurie Tollemache with 36 points.

Everyone was delighted that Geoff Banks was able to present the trophy and vouchers to the winners.

As was always his custom when organising the Tuesday Mixed, Geoff said a few words and concluded with a humorous tale. Despite being in his 90s Geoff has lost none of his talent for relating a good yarn.

Seniors

SIXTY-one Seniors turned out last Friday to compete in the Masters Medal.

This is an annual event in which players that came either first or second in individual competitions during the previous year are eligible to compete for the title of 'Masters' Champion – and the right to wear the green jersey.

For those players who were not eligible for the Masters, the competition was a straightforward monthly medal.

In cloudy, rather humid conditions with a threat of rain, and after a close-fought contest Howard Pritchard emerged as Champion with a net 68 – earning him a one shot handicap cut.

He also topped Division II with John Pawley on 71 second, ahead on count-back from John Vessey.

David Lee followed with a 72 and Bob Cockett, who regularly appears amongst the winners, claimed last spot. In Division I, Dave Maggs came out on top with an excellent 69.

Three players followed on 70, separated on count-back. Mike Stroud was second, ahead of Chris Street and Bill Eaton. Tony Williams with 71 was fifth.

There were four 2s: Robert Canterbury and Vic Wood on the 2nd hole, Mike Stroud on the 10th and Derek Herrington on the 10th. They each won eight balls.

ON MONDAY, 36 Seniors entered the Memorial Bowl trophy which is an annual event held in memory of those Senior golfers who have sadly passed away.

The competition takes the format of a three man team with two to score. Several teams scored around the 75 mark but the outright winners by a big margin was the team led by Malcolm Roy who amassed an amazing 84 points.

Result: Winners – Malcolm Roy; Nick George & Bert Robinson, 84 points; Runners-up: Martin Leigh; Barrie Heath & Trevor Dobson, 78 points.

A large field of 56 Seniors entered the June Stableford qualifier on Wednesday, and in the benign conditions, the scoring was good, with many players scoring under par rounds.

An exciting competition developed in Division 1 with three players all returning the same score of three under par rounds of 39 points. Rod Young was adjudicated the winner by virtue of having the best final six holes.

In Division 2, George Wallace had a round of four under to win the Division with 40 points.

Result: Division 1 – 1. Rod Young (39), 2. Eddie Paolini (39), 3. Kevin Graves (39); Division 2 – George Wallace (40), 2. Brian Hodder (38), 3. Bob Hollingsworth (37).

The match team travelled to Cannington on Thursday. With two losses in the first two games, all was not well, but a fine win on the 17th green gave the Saints some hope.

A further loss and a win at game five left the result depending on the final game. Unfortunately the game was lost which gave Cannington victory by 4-2.

Nick Hill & Bill Hilson lost by two holes Roger Stone & Nobby Hodder lost by 4 & 2; Keith Potter & Richard Hall won by 2 & 1; John Pearce & Barrie Singleton lost by one hole; Robin Flower & James Dick won by one hole; Bryan Frost & Mick Aldridge lost by 3 & 2.

The first round of the Knighton Heath Knockout Plate competition was held on Thursday and the competition team travelled to the new forest to take on the might of Burley.

In an evenly contested match over ten games, the Saints team found themselves 4-5 down after nine games, but with all depending on the final game, there was to be another defeat, with Burley winning by 6-4.

Roger Stone halved with Gary Hill; Bob Barrow lost to Richard Moyle by 3 & 2; Chris Gingell lost to Richard Hyde by 1 hole; Alan Chance beat Roy Fleet by 2 & 1; Norman Markby lost to David Smallman by 4 & 2; Barrie Heath halve with Mike Stephon; John Wandless beat John Diment by 1 hole; Peter Spencer-Farr lost to David Beck by 4 & 3; Lyndsey Gage beat David Curtis by 3 & 2; Stuart Pope lost to Jeremy Bilham by 5 & 4.

The Seniors completed the week with a three man 'Hassle' competition on Friday.

Eight teams took part in favourable conditions and some fine golf was experienced.

In a close finish, the team managed by Mike Burt won by the closest margin of 0.66 of a shot over Fred Oliver's trio.

Result: 1. Mike Burt, Trevor Dobson & Ian Fielder, 59.84; 2. Fred Oliver, Mike Mosser & Alan Keegan, 60.50; 3. George Wallace, John Bloys & Andy Beale, 63.50.

AXMINSTER with David Harris

THE highlight of recent weeks was Andy Spiller's excellent win against Steve Hall of Ottery in the National Singles K.O. Competition which now pairs him with World No 2 Robert Paxton in the next round - the date yet to be decided at Exonia (Exeter).

The men continued their good form in the Devon Over-60 League with an excellent home win over Exonia (47-29) with wins for both rinks - Howard Keep, David Harris, and Doug Looskan (22-12) and John Hill, Tony Cable, and Bob Sherborne (25-17) but lost narrowly at North Tawton (33-37) with John Ellis, David Harris, and Bob Sherborne managing a 18-16 win. In the County Foxlands competition we enjoyed success against Sidmouth (43-31) with the away rink of Alan Morgan, Tony Cable, Andy Spiller, and Bob Sherborne winning 21-14 and the home rink of John Hill, Howard Keep, David Harris, and Seven Apsey winning 22-17.

However we failed to win a rink in the Top Club competition game at Chardstock where we found the green very difficult - but we all enjoyed their hospitality and the meal which followed!

We then beat Dunkseswell at home in a close match (70-62) with wins for Daphne Ryan, Phil White, John Hill, and George Mabon (24-11) and Margaret Brown, Les Clark, and Ann Clayton (20-12).

Off the mark

HONITON Petanque scored their first win of the season against touring side Royal Oak Petanque Club from Shropshire, the first in a series of challenge matches for the Mountbatten Park based club.

The visitors, who play in the second division of the Severn Valley Petanque League, brought a strong side, but Honiton eventually ran out 6-2 winners in a highly competitive match.

Honiton led 3-1 after the first round of triples and doubles, then repeated the score in the second round with solid performances by all the team.

"After starting the season with three very close defeats in the Devon League this win was important to give the team some much needed confidence," said captain Chris Bigmore.

"It's a good feeling to chalk up our first win and every player contributed," he added.

Win for Dursley

ROUND three of the Summer League at Dillington Pond was fished in bright and sunny conditions but the venue still fished really well.

John Dursley came out on top of the 12 competitors with a nice net of bream and skimmers weighing 17lb 8oz on the groundbait feeder from peg 10.

Graham Field was second with 15lb of roach and rudd on the whip from peg 17, and Jess Jordan was third with 14lb 5oz on the short pole from peg 7, his catch included a lovely 5lb 2oz Bream.

Round four is on Sunday, June 19th and the draw is at the Royal Oak, Ilminster between 8.30 and 9am.

Sections: A - Steve Parker (Ilton) - 9lb 11oz, B - Jamie Rich (Against Men and Fish) - 11lb 10oz.

WE'RE halfway through the season but because of fixture rearrangements there is a discrepancy in the number of games played, with Flamingos having completed five of their six fixtures, and with five wins and a maximum 25 points they are the team to beat.

They completed their fifth win with a victory over Beer Blazers by 33-16, with Beer just missing out on a point by a single goal.

Lisa Pemberton was the star of the show for Flamingos whilst Melanie Manville lit up the Blazers.

Sidmouth Toucans made it three wins from four starts when they met Tip Top Trees Acorns.

Their 22-18 win saw Acorns gain a point but Toucans did enough to move back into second place on goal difference, with Acorns holding onto fourth spot from Tip Top Trees Oaks.

MILLWEY Rise footballers and guests were certainly in party mood at what can only be described as an 'exuberant' presentation evening at Cloakham Lawns Social Club last Friday.

Chairman Doug Thomson (who this year clocks up 50 years association with the club) welcomed everyone.

He thanked the players, the committee and all who have made it possible for the club to remain a force to be reckoned with in the East Devon area.

President Tony Turner added his thanks and said although he had a few personal doubts when the club left the Perry Street League these had been quickly assuaged with the impact Millwey had made in the Devon & Exeter League this season.

He offered his congratulations to all the players in both 1st and 2nd teams and to all those who gave their time to make Millwey Rise FC the success they are.

He then presented bouquets to club secretary Joanne Flint and Julie Horn behind the bar for ensuring his pint of Thatchers is always at the right temperature!

The presentations were then made by the respective team managers: Simon Flint for the 1st XI and Dan Murnane together with Mark Enticott and Craig Mitchell for the 2nd XI.

First XI trophies went to Levi Hoole, who rounded off a great season when he walked away with the Top Goalscorer (73 goals) and Manager's Player of the Year awards.

The Most Improved Player award deservedly went to Zak Meaker while Matty Lewis was unanimously chosen Players' Player of the year.

Second XI trophies went to Henry Alexander-Mitchell (Top Goalscorer), Leon Finbow (Most Improved Player) and captain Wayne Jenkins (Players' Player).

The Millwey Rise FC Clubman of the Year award was presented to Dan Murnane.

If the enthusiasm shown throughout the evening can be harnessed into next season's football, the future for Millwey Rise FC looks great.
